3. The study of [REDACTED] language is believed a most worthwhile project for the chief of station [REDACTED]. Although the [REDACTED] dialect is the most widely spoken tongue in that area, the vast majority of educated persons do speak [REDACTED]. Thus a knowledge of [REDACTED] would enable Mr. [REDACTED] to communicate with Northern as well as Southern [REDACTED] individuals. Even a slight knowledge of [REDACTED] is a tremendous aid in relations with the [REDACTED] people.
